

No-Refund Policy

MEMBERSHIP:

AAACE membership benefits are available upon successful payment providing immediate access to our world-class Total Cost Management Framework, Virtual Library, Recommended Practices, membership directory, and discounts on products, events, and certification examinations, etc. Therefore, paid membership is presumed used and not eligible for return or refund.

CERTIFICATION:

AAACE certification and recertification fees include a professional review of all submitted application and eligibility verification documentation for which payment must be given. AAACE will always provide an opportunity for candidates and certificants to correct or update submissions if the original information is not sufficient or acceptable. It is the candidate's or certificant's responsibility to comply in the instructed manner and deadline given.

For these reasons, AAACE International enforces a strict no-refund policy.
